INTERESTING ITEMS FROM EL VERANO AND VICINITY.

Weekly Record of all the Happenings in His Town as Faithfully Recorded by Our Wide-Awake Reporter, "Archie McKiver."

George Goess of Sonoma was in town Sunday.

The grand opening of Parente's Villa takes place Sunday.

Chas. Spindler transacted business in San Francisco Tuesday.

Sam Warshawsky of the Bay City is a guest at Flora Villa.

Chas. Spindler transacted business in the metropolis Saturday.

Mrs. Wm. O'Connor and little girl are guests at the Crane Hotel.

John and Mike Kane, the twin brother painters, will be in town Sunday.

Louie Kearney of the County Farm of Santa Rosa was in town Tuesday.

Miss Cecilia Dowdall of San Francisco visited her folks here Sunday.

J. J. Hollar has returned from Concord after spending a few days in that town.

F. A. R. left for Guinda last Friday on business connected with the P. I. Company.

John Rees of the Union Iron works, San Francisco, is registered at El Verano Villa.

John Vincent, our well known butcher, transacted business in San Francisco on Monday.

R. A. Poppe, Sonoma's attorney, transacted business in Santa Rosa Monday between trains.

L. McCloskey, accompanied by his sister, Miss Ruby of San Francisco, visited relatives here Sunday.

The rainfall here Saturday night and Sunday was one inch, certainly some rain for the month of June.

Miss Nellie O'Brien is here from the metropolis spending the week on her ranch in the western foothills.

Miss Belle Conway, a charming young lady of San Francisco, is registered this week at the Hotel Bellevue.

Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Thornberg of San Francisco are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Austin Moore of this place.

Edward Gunther has returned to the metropolis after spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. P. D. Wheatland.

Frank Carter, the well-known San Francisco referee, motored to this place from that city with a party of friends last Sunday.

L. L. Lewis, President of the Yulupa Land and Water Co., was in town from Berkeley the latter part of last week.

Among those who took Monday morning's train for the metropolis were John Lombos, Miss Coutts and Mrs. L. Lubus.

Attorney T. Z. Blakeman and wife, accompanied by Mrs. McMillan, are visiting on their ranch in the foothills west of town.

The Buffalo Club of San Francisco, fifty strong, held its annual outing and dance at the Swiss-American Hotel last Sunday.

Mrs. M. McCloskey and daughter are in town from the metropolis and will spend the summer in their beautiful country home here.

Harry Earl, the popular proprietor of the Riverside Resort, was in the city this week arranging attractions for his opening on July 4th.

Louie Parente purchased the fore part of the week from the Sonoma Music Co. a $750 piano, which he will use in connection with his dance hall.

Among those who are spending the summer here at "The Wilows" are J. J. Kigney and wife, Miss L. Ellison, E. Sharp, G. Ferguson and A. Dowling. They will remain a month.

Another summer resort is to be opened in the western end of this place. Michaelson & Franklin will conduct it. It promises, when completed, to be one of the popular hotels of the valley.

Louis Peterson, our lumber merchant, was busy the fore part of the week unloading a carload of doors. It was the biggest shipment of doors ever received here at one time. Mr. Peterson is surely doing some door business.

Fritz Holland and Louis Parente went to San Francisco last Friday afternoon to witness the Kaufman-Miller boxing bout. Holland was one of Miller's chief seconds in the ring.

El Verano has got a "white hope" and a live one, too. This fighting gentleman stands 6 feet 4 inches in his stockings and will be heard of in pugilistic circles in the near future. He has been located in the western foothills.

Mrs. O. E. Gates, accompanied by her two children, left the latter part of last week for Muskegon, Michigan, via the Southern Pacific. Mrs. Gates will visit "the old folks at home," and expects to be absent several weeks.

R. B. Sands, who has been a familiar figure here the past few summers and who returned to San Francisco last Friday, passed away in that city Saturday. The deceased leaves a wife and had many friends here who sympathize with his widow in her sorrow.

Verano has got the biggest hot air merchant in the State in its midst. This fellow's old bull was in evidence around town Sunday and to hear him talk one would think he was it—that is, those who are not on to him. Oh, my, but he is some joke and the boys on this side know it.

There was no baseball game here Sunday on account of the rain. The Daily City news came up on the morning train to try conclusions with our local team and returned to the city very much disappointed, but will return shortly. Manager Wilkinson announces a good game for next Sunday.

Supervisor Blair Hart was in town Wednesday. Mr. Hart has a number of staunch old-time Democratic and Republican friends here who want him to take the stump again this campaign for Supervisor. If he does it is a sure thing he will be re-elected.

Louis Lamotte, proprietor of El Verano Villa, has made arrangements with the Sonoma Valley Band to give an open air concert on the villa grounds on the evening of July 3d. This will be a great treat to the general public which is cordially invited to be present.

Harry Earl, manager of the Riverside Resort, has been able through his past theatrical influence to secure the Royal Hawaiian Trio—three of the best singers and musicians from a land noted for its sweet singers. This treat for visitors to the Riverside Resort will start July 4th and be with us four days. All are invited.

The weather being fine in San Francisco last Sunday all trains brought crowds of pleasure seekers here on that day. Among the visitors were bevy of the fair sex toggled out in summer dresses and merry widow hats, which were all but ruined by the rain, which fell steadily throughout the day, much to the disgust of everybody.

There was sadness and gloom on the faces of Colonel Roosevelt's supporters here when they learned that President Taft's steam roller had crushed out their favorite's chances for a third term. Most of these Roosevelt chaps were on the dry side in the recent Local Option election here and politics appears to be against 'em. They all wanted King Roosevelt nominated.

Frank Takahashi, a Jap birdman, made a flight on the J. K. Bigelow ranch the fore part of the week. This little brown man, it is said, went up in the air to take a bird's-eye view of this Supervisorial district and when he returned to terra firma pronounced the territory very wet looking. The Jap said his flight in the air was made to see the chances of another Local Option election being held, but was sorry to say it looked doubtful.

There were all kinds of trains passing through here last Friday and Saturday. The Northwestern Pacific ran its trains this way while the drawbridge at Black Point was out of commission. The California Northwestern trains look good on the Southern Pacific rails, and no handsomer crowd of trainmen ever pulled in and out of our depot here than that of the N. W. P. Co's train crew. El Verano sure looked like a train center on those days.

Billy Carr, entertainer at the Parente Villa, had a runaway last Monday. Billy was thrown out of the rig and sprained his ankle. We are unable to find out the particulars but rumor has it that Willie had his eyes on a passing summer fairy, and the horse shying threw him out. You will have to pay more attention to your horse hereafter, Billy, and less to our charming summer lassies.

A mixup between the Sonoma bakery wagon and Chas. Locominis milk wagon occurred here Tuesday morning. Brandy, the driver of Castex's bakery wagon, collided with the milk cart, smashing the cart, spilling the milk and throwing the driver out. The horse attached to the milk cart then ran away, but fortunately no one was hurt. The bakery wagon was also disfigured and the bread and milk were scattered along the road.

A Sunday visitor from San Francisco fell off the 6:30 Northwestern train Sunday evening between Verano and Sonoma. The young fellow was standing on the platform of the train and lost his balance while rounding a sharp curve on the road. He fortunately escaped with a few minor bruises. The train backed up and took the young man aboard and he continued on his journey none the worse for his adventure.

The big thing in town this week is the electric "hoss" car, and the sound of the motorman's electric bell reminds one of the electric cars that will run through this valley some day. Elmer Owens is the driver of this pay-as-you-enter-car while Billy Carr serves in the capacity of conductor. The cars belong to Parente's Villa and formerly did service on the old Geary-street line in San Francisco and are being run in an up-to-date manner.

Jack Martin of Richmond is spending the week here, being registered at El Verano Villa. Mr. Martin, who is a cigar dealer, was one of the leaders on the side of the wets in the late Local Option contest in his city when the prohibitionists were defeated 5 to 1. Jack is also some walker and during his sojourn here has been doing some twelve miles a day. He is known as "Jack, the Hiker," in his home town. He has a host of friends here who are always glad to see him.

Charley Miller, who is Louis Parente's "white hope," and who conditioned himself at Parente's training camp here, won the decision over Al Kaufman after a grueling contest last Friday evening in San Francisco. This victory puts Miller among the leading "white hopes" of the country, and he will soon leave for New York, where he will tackle such men as Al Palzer, Jim Flynn and other noted pugilists. Louis Parente, his manager, will accompany him, and expects his protege to bring the heavyweight championship back to America before many months pass by.

The El Verano Athletic Club held several entertaining boxing exhibitions in Parente's Pavilion Thursday evening. There were four good rattling bouts and judging from the large crowd assembled around the ringside the boxing game must be very popular in this valley. Charley Miller, the coming heavy-weight champion of the world, boxed an exhibition three-round bout with Cleve Hawkins, the clever colored Chicago light heavy weight, which was fast and full of vim. The other bouts were all good. Many old lovers of the fist game were observed at the ringside.

The Batchelor Club held its second party last Sunday in its club rooms here. The party was given in honor of several out-of-town members who arrived in town Sunday morning. A bountiful repast was served with some of Sonoma Valley's choicest sparkling wines. Harry Stone, chef of the Fairmount Hotel, San Francisco, prepared the banquet. Among those present were H. Faulkner, O. Olsen, F. Carlson, W. Armstrong, H. Stone, D. Vincent, A. Childs and A. Rossi. Walter Armstrong acted as toastmaster and entertained the company with some lively stories and laughable jokes. Harry Stone delivered the opening address, a jig was given by A. Childs, which was encored several times, Dutch Vincent sang that beautiful Dutch melody, "Og Tile Augustine," which brought down the house. The boys say they had the time of their lives. Another party will be given some time next month.

Charley Miller, the conqueror of Al Kaufman, has taken a sparring partner for life. He was granted a marriage license in San Francisco Saturday to wed Miss Nonnie Cecilia Youngstrom of that city. The wedding took place the same day and the bridal couple then took the afternoon train for this place. A tremendous reception was given "Big Charley" and his blushing bride as they alighted from the train. A whole sack of rice was in readiness and the newly weds were fairly deluged with it. The band then played a wedding march and cheers went up for the bride and groom. Charley took the demonstration good naturedly and addressed the throng that had gathered at the depot, thanking them for the reception. Mr. and Mrs. Miller will spend a brief honeymoon at Parente's Villa before returning to the metropolis. ARCHIBALD MCKIVER. El Verano, June 27, 1912.

The Farmers and the Southern Pacific Demonstration Train

More than 102,000 California farmers attended the lectures of the University of California professors and visited the Southern Pacific agricultural demonstration train during the 1911-12 season just ended. The precise number of auditors at these lectures was 102,624, according to a careful census taken at each stop of the train. This is an increase of 24,400, or 31 per cent over the attendance of last year.

Close to 5,000 miles were covered by the train during the 1911-1912 season, more than twice the distance covered in 1908. There was a noted increase in attendance at practically every place visited. In only a few instances did the attendance show a decrease, and in all cases it was caused by inclement weather.

This was the fourth year of the agricultural and horticultural demonstration train and greater attention was given to actual instruction work. The cars were arranged so that persons interested in any one of the many subjects exhibited could visit that car in particular, listen to the lecture of the specialist in charge of the car, and ask as many questions about the subject as they saw fit. Discussion was invited and through such disputation many important and interesting facts were made clear to all producers. The train covered the entire state over the Southern Pacific lines, and was then taken over the Northwestern Pacific. Every one interested in horticulture, viticulture, agriculture, stock-raising, or in any industry that has to do with the soil who listened to the lectures, has pronounced them of great benefit to the entire state.

CODLING MOTH AND THE APPLE CROP

County Commissioner of Horticulture Galloway Advises Spraying not Later Than July 10th

Mr. A. R. Galloway, County Commissioner of Horticulture, and his deputy, O. E. Bremner, have made a general survey of the Sonoma section the past week, paying particular attention to the pears, apples and cherries. The main object of their visit was to ascertain the proper time for applying a spray for the second generation of the codling moth in the apples. They discovered that the larvae of the moth were beginning to pupate, which means the adults will soon appear, which leads to the conclusion that spraying should begin not later than the 10th of July. They advise the application of arsenate of lead, two pounds to fifty gallons of water. Spray should be applied in a fine mist thoroughly, but not so that the tree will drip. The gentlemen found that the cherries in this section were not seriously injured by the late rain. They also report a very heavy and clean crop of pears, also a good crop of apples.

Woman's Club Notes

At last Friday's Club meeting a most interesting suggestive paper on "Manual Training in Schools" was read by Mrs. Wagon, while Miss Henrietta Weber greatly pleased her audience with some songs. Mrs. Wm. Von Hacht was the afternoon's hostess. Considerable business had to be disposed of, incident to the September Festival and the still nearer Fourth of July ball. This promises to be a most enjoyable occasion and a big crowd is looked for.

Funeral of William Dixon.

William Dixon, for many years a resident of this valley, who died at the county hospital, Santa Rosa, on the 18th inst., was held in this city last Sunday afternoon, the interment being in Valley Cemetery. The deceased, who was 79 years of age, had been ill but a short time before he died and his death was a surprise to his friends. He was a single man and had kept bachelor hall in the eastern limits of the town for many years.

Make hay while the sun shines, but where is the sun, my dear.

Fred Batto made his usual business trip to the Bay City on Monday last.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Rouquie of Vineyard Villa visited the Bay City on Monday last.

It rained Saturday night and Sunday. Now if you don't believe me, ask some of the hay balers.

Mr. and Mrs. James Brandt and daughter of San Anselmo were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. Brandt this week.

Mrs. Rose Harboe of San Francisco with her son and daughter are guests of Jacob Mayer at the Old Homestead.

Chas. Fessia, a well known musician of Portland, Or., is here on a visit to his friend Professor Ricci and is registered at E. Forni's Pleasant Villa.

Professor Buckbee, principal of the High School at Ferndale, Humboldt county, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. George Hansen several days this week.

L. Quartaroli, one of Sonoma City's solid business men and ex-city trustee, was a visitor at Vineburg on Monday last. You are always welcome, Niedo.

Albert and Irvin Steffens, two well known musicians of San Francisco, are the guests of Al Trautvetter at the Brookside on the Hyde tract this week.

Messrs. Ren Vernon and Joe Fernandez returned from a two-months' trip to Oregon on Friday and report that the trip was a successful one. Good boys.

Martin Bonzagni of Martinez and a well known pioneer of Contra Costa county, accompanied by his daughter, Miss Adele, was the guest of his old-time friends, Mr. and Mrs. John Batto and family at Batto's spur, on Wednesday and Thursday.

Messrs. Fred Batto of Vineburg and Norman Heggie of Sonoma motored to Petaluma on Wednesday on business. They were accompanied by the Misses Louisa and Emily Batto and Miss Marguerite McDevitt. The little ladies report a fine time in the egg city.

Next Saturday evening there will be a dance in Enrico Forni's new building at Vineburg. The music will be furnished by Professor Fessia of Portland, Or., and Professor Ricci of Seattle, Wash. This will be their farewell musical in Vineburg. Admission free.

Jim Small is the happiest man in Vineburg. Why? Well, some one said he lost a Panama hat and that is something he never owned, but of course the dear bees do get busy and so do the would-bees. A VICTORY FOR SONOMA COUNTY

Interstate Commerce Commission Decides That the Railroads Must Give Santa Rosa Terminal Rates

A dispatch from Washington under date of June 25th says that the Interstate Commerce Commission in a decision handed down on that day has ordered the Southern Pacific Company and its allied lines to remove the discrimination in freight rates against Santa Rosa and other Sonoma county towns.

This suit, which was fraught with so much importance to Sonoma county, was brought by the Santa Rosa Traffic Association.

In the preparing of the complaint against the railroad credit is due to District Attorney Clarence F. Lea, who aided in drawing up the papers in the starting of the suit, Attorney Kellogg, father of Fred H. Kellogg, and Attorney C. J. Lathrop, who were the attorneys of record in the case and to Attorney W. F. Cowan, under whose direction the testimony was presented before Special Commissioner F. J. Vassault in San Francisco last February.

The community also owes thanks to Duncan E. McKinlay, the former congressman from this district, because it was he who went before the Commerce Commission and got a date set for the hearing.

Henry D. Noonan is president of the Santa Rosa Traffic Association at the present time, and it was under his presidency that W. F. Cowan was brought into the case as an attorney; the testimony presented and the case argued before the Commerce Commission.

The victory of the Santa Rosa Traffic Association is one of the greatest things in the business sense that has ever happened to Sonoma county and the adjacent territory. Marysville, San Jose, Santa Clara, Sacramento, San Francisco and Stockton has enjoyed terminal rates for years, but the railroads have always refused Sonoma county this privilege and have charged 25 cents a hundred pounds over the terminal rate, the extra charge being what is termed the haul-back charge.

The decision of the Commerce Commission not only reduces the rate on commodities to Sonoma county, but also to all points in Lake and Mendocino counties, and will tend to make Santa Rosa more of a wholesale distributing point for all commodities.

CAPT. H. E. BOYES HAS SOLD HIS RANCH

Will Remove to San Diego, Where He Will Make His Future Home

Capt. and Mrs. H. E. Boyes have disposed of their 90-acre ranch and handsome home opposite Boyes Springs to an English gentleman and will remove to San Diego.

Capt. Boyes during a residence of thirty years in this valley has probably did more than any other one man toward its advancement.

As the original owner of Boyes Springs, which he disposed of a number of years ago to the company that now control them, he developed the valuable medicinal springs on the place and did much to advertise the Sonoma Valley as a health and pleasure resort.

Like many another man the efforts of Capt. Boyes to develop the resources of this valley have never been fully appreciated by those who have been benefited by his unselfish enterprise covering a long period of years. To the old residents of Sonoma Valley who know Capt. and Mrs. Boyes best their leave-taking will create a void in our midst hard to fill.

However, what will be Sonoma Valley's loss will be San Diego's gain in the departure of these worthy people.

PASSING OF A PIONEER CITIZEN.

George W. Estes, After a Long and Useful Career, Joins the Silent Majority—Lived in Sonoma 56 Years

George W. Estes, for fifty-six years a resident of this city, passed away last Thursday at the advanced age of 85 years 3 months and 7 days.

The deceased, who is survived by a wife and eleven grown children, was a pioneer of this state, having arrived in San Francisco the very day Cora and Casey were hanged by the Vigilantes in 1852.

He located in this valley in 1856, shortly after his marriage in Petaluma.

During their long residence in Sonoma Mr. and Mrs. Estes were the parents of twelve children, eleven of whom with their mother survive the aged pioneer.

These are Mrs. Estes, the widow, and Albert J. Estes, Wm. H. Estes, Geo. W. Estes, Dan Estes, Fred J. Estes, Edward S. Estes, Lawrence E. Estes, Mrs. S. S. Simons (nee May F. Estes), Miss Ella R. Estes, Miss Emma C. Estes, Mrs. Paul Robin (nee Florence Estes). These reside in different parts of the State, with the exception of Mrs. Robin, who occupies the family home on Broadway, where the old pioneer passed away.

The deceased in his younger days was numbered among the hardy Argonauts who snatched California out of a wilderness and made it what it is today, one of the brightest stars in the galaxy of states of the Union.

He was a native of Batavia, New York, and was born on June 27, 1829.

The funeral of the old pioneer will take place this (Saturday) afternoon at 2 o'clock from his late residence on Broadway. The interment will be in Mountain Cemetery.

THE RAIN SUNDAY DID MUCH DAMAGE.

The Owners of Hay Fields and Cherry Orchards the Principal Sufferers

The rain which set in here last Sunday morning developed into a veritable downpour which lasted for twenty-four hours without cessation, and continued well into Monday night. The precipitation for Sunday was 1.10 inches, playing havoc with cut hay in the fields and the unharvested cherry crop, about two-thirds of the latter, however, having been picked and shipped to market.

The precipitation was about the heaviest ever known in this valley in the month of June.

Thousands of people came to the valley from San Francisco and other near-by cities to enjoy an outing in our beautiful and picturesque valley, and it is needless to add the rain put a damper on their ardor, as it kept them indoors all day. It surely was a disappointed crowd of pleasure-seekers who boarded the afternoon trains for their return journey to the metropolis. The remarkable contrast between the Sunday before and last Sunday was commented on by everybody. The first was an ideal summer day, while the latter might have been looked for in mid-winter but never before in the Sonoma Valley in mid-summer.

Evidently the clerk of the weather has turned reformer and is attempting to experiment with the elements just like Roosevelt and Bryan are trying to run the politics of this country.

WARDING OFF COLDS.

Keep Your Hands Clean and Away From Your Nose and Mouth.

"Trying to trace a cold is not easy," said a health expert. "Many if not most of them are credited to drafts. It is very unfortunate that these cool currents of air, especially if the air is fresh, are so generally and persistently maligned. When grandma or father sneezes mother looks at once for some open door or window and it is promptly closed. If John or Mary has the snivels in the morning nothing seems clearer than that they slept near an open window. On the next night the windows are kept closed and the good, pure air is kept outside for the birds and the squirrels."

"I say it is too bad that air in motion has achieved such a bad reputation. A cold is a disease, and only follows an infection, and the infection can come through the nose or mouth. There is no question about this. All doctors agree on it, and it seems, at least to those in the profession, reasonable and simple. Your hands gather germs all the time, because disease germs are as common as weeds. You put your hand up to your nose or mouth many times a day—it is a habit—and a bad one. The germs lodge in these entrances and at an opportune time are taken into the system. When a cold develops as a result you wonder in what way you have been indiscreet, and at once try to recall some draft or sudden cooling off."

"The best remedy for a cold is to take lots of fresh air—good, pure food and enough exercise. The best way to prevent a cold is to wash your hands often and never to put your fingers either in your nose or mouth. Remember that a cool or hot or any current of fresh air blowing on your back at night or in the daytime can never infect your system and produce a cold. Colds come from a germ."—New York Press.

Blooming Traffic Regulator.

A hansom cab while going through a narrow London street was stopped by a line of carriages on one side and by a stationary cart filled with flowering plants on the other.

"Cabby" civilly requested the driver of the cart to move on and let him pass, but was answered with a defiant grunt and sneer, whereupon the cabman brought his horse's head in close proximity to the cart and then slackened the reins.

As the animal began to browse among the mignonette and geraniums his driver called out to the florist's man:

"He's a-smelling on 'em, ain't he?"

The driver of the cart turned round in time to see a long stalk with a flower at the end of it extending from the horse's mouth. In a moment the way was clear for the hansom.—London Tit-Bits.

Agua Caliente, Cal., May 9th, 1912.
To the Editor of the Index-Tribune, Sonoma, Cal.:

It has been stated by certain parties that I took a great interest in the late election and made every endeavor to make this district dry.

Those same parties have tried in every manner possible to misrepresent and injure me in my business in the past, and I take this means to inform the public that I have done and used every effort in my power to prevent the district from going dry.

I make this statement to remove those false impressions that are being scattered broadcast in the last few days.
